

The Government of Labor Mobility in Europe Histories, Categories, Contestations

Conference, March 31st and April 1st, 2022
Centre Marc Bloch (Berlin), with the support of the CIERA

Organisation: Sebastian Büttner, Hadrien Clouet, Karim Fertikh, Nikola Tietze

Salle Germaine Tillon + zoom

Program

Thursday, Mars 31, 2022

13h30: Welcome and presentation

14h – 14h30: Introduction and presentation of the planned special issue
(Sebastian Büttner, Universität Erlangen; Karim Fertikh, University of Strasbourg)

14h30-15h40

Karim Fertikh (University of Strasbourg, Academic Institute of France): Inventing A Social Security for Migrant Workers: Law, Population and Administrative Power (1930s-1970s)

Ferruccio Ricciardi (CNRS, LISE Paris): Undesirable workers? Mobility and social rights of (post)colonial workers in the light of the ‘national’ welfare state (France, 1915-1960)

Coffee Break

16h10-17h20

Cedric Jürgensen (Universität Leipzig/CMB): Changed Border, Changed Dynamics? Sketching the First Impacts of Brexit on the Dover-Calais Border Region

Hicham Jamid (Lise, Cnam Paris): Foreign workers in France: professional integration under constraints

18h00 Dinner on site

19h Public lecture:

Adrian Favell (University of Leeds/Fellow Wiko Berlin):

“The end of freedom of movement in Europe? Assessing the effects and future of a borderless Europe from the Cold War to Covid”

Welcome: Isabella Löhr (Vice Director Centre Marc Bloch)

Moderation: Sebastian Büttner (Universität Erlangen)

Friday, April 1st, 2022

9h00-10h45

Pierre-Edouard Weill (Université de Bretagne occidentale/LabLEX): Transformations in the Journalistic Coverage of Posted Workers. From Diplomatic Affairs to Daily Local News

Sanja Beronja (EHESS/CMB): “Attracting international tech talent” in the 21st century: how governance of innovation hubs in Europe redefines international labor regulations”

Christine Barwick (Europa-Universität Flensburg/CMB): From limitations to freedom of movement to exceptional mobilities: political debates around the mobility of Romanian workers in Germany

Coffee break

11h15-13h15

Christoph Krenn / Nikola Tietze (CMB/WiKu): When Mobile Workers Become a “Burden”... The ECJ's Citizenship Jurisprudence and the Member States' Struggle for a Social Law Differentiation of the Right to Freedom of Movement (1998 – 2015)

Hadrien Clouet (Certop/University of Toulouse): "Always further? How jobseekers face the mobility obligation in Germany and France"

12h25-13h00 Conclusion & discussion

Antoine Vauchez (CNRS, CESSP/Michael Endres Visiting Professor Hertie School) :
Concluding remarks